

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

UNLEASHING TEAM POTENTIAL WITH AUTHOR SYLVIA PLESTER-SILK

GUELPH, ON - If you're looking to surpass your targets, create a highly motivated team, and set yourself up for promotion, then join author Sylvia Plester-Silk at the Main Library (100 Norfolk Street) on Wednesday, September 18th at 7PM as she shares her new book, Unleashing Team Potential: Lessons for Managers from my Canine Friends.

"A charmingly written, humorous view of the challenges and opportunities for management. Wittingly using lessons from our canine friends, the book provides lessons and observations that will undoubtedly help managers think about how they interact with others and more importantly how they can facilitate interactions for positive outcomes" said Alastair Summerlee, President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Guelph.

Whether you are an aspiring leader, recently promoted to a supervisory position or have been in management for years, Sylvia Plester-Silk's book will teach you the key concepts required to bring your leadership skills to a new level. Join Sylvia for her book launch and silent auction on September 18th with proceeds being donated to the Guelph Humane Society and the Guelph Public Library!

About the Author:

Sylvia Plester-Silk is the principal facilitator and coach at On Purpose Consulting, where she offers team dynamics solutions and skills based learning. After 20 years in human services, Sylvia knows what it takes to create inspired workplaces based on communication, collaboration and cooperation.

For more information:

Kitty Pope, GPL CEO
kpope@library.guelph.on.ca | 519.824.6220 x 226

###